

UNIVERSAL BEING 2024

Spiritual Perspectives

Some would have us believe that mankind is an insignificant, temporary result of the physical universe. Yet, from formal spiritual belief systems to the simple joy of kindness, humanity has always sensed that life is so much more. Sometimes, however, we need a reminder. For our 41st annual Universal Being conference, SOL presents four perspectives to do just that – remind us that a mindless physical process does not explain love and the constant extra-sensory clues that permeate life. This unique blend of speakers enhances our recognition of the non-physical qualities that prove we are more than what we see in the mirror each morning. From our natural abilities to perceive beyond the physical to a symbol of our communal dignity; from an ancient text that speaks to our spiritual reality to the reality of interactions with others in the spiritual realms, UB: 24 is a doorway to deeper awareness.

In “Dining With Presidents,” Janet Weir Creighton will share first-hand experiences with a symbol of our national community: The White House State Dinner. A public servant throughout her adult life, Creighton has been a Deputy Assistant to the President and Director of Intergovernmental Affairs. A former mayor of Canton, she now serves as a Stark County Commissioner. From the perspective of an insider, she will share historic information about the dinners, down to the special table settings that have served kings, queens and heads of state from around the world, all an aspect of our shared pride and heritage as Americans.

An investigation into “Revelation” will be presented by Rev. Deborah Rhinesmith, pastor and administrator of the Fairlawn-West United Church of Christ. A distinguished scholar who has been published internationally, she is a fellow of the Congregational Foundation for Theological Studies. She will draw on scripture and history to address the spiritualized symbols in Revelation that address the problem of evil, including numbers and even colors used by the book’s creator. “Please join us,” Rev. Rhinesmith says, “as we engage the vibrant imagination and skillful storytelling of the author of Revelation, and unlock some of its powerful mysteries.”

Elizabeth Howell will introduce us to the reading of “Tarot Cards,” a skill she has been practicing for more than 30 years. She has been a gifted psychic, mystic and messenger since the age of three. An ordained minister, Rev. Howell is also a Certified Hypnotherapist, Meta-physical Counselor, Herbalist and Reiki master. As a tarot practitioner, she has read for some 80,000 people nationwide throughout her career. At Universal Being 2024, she will not only provide insights into tarot cards, she will give a demonstration.

The deep trance communications of Canton psychic William Allen LePar, which were witnessed by scientists, journalists, and people from all walks of life, are the primary source for “Avatars and Influences From the Spirit Realms,” presented by SOL Associate Denny Highben. The source that spoke during LePar’s trances, known as The Council, revealed a mind-boggling array of insights into the reality we think we know, reality as it truly is, and the place and purpose of humanity. Highben, one of the journalists who questioned LePar extensively and participated in the trances, has written several books for SOL, including the popular Three Worlds Lost and the forthcoming biography, William Allen LePar; The Spiritual Rosetta Stone for the End of our Age.
